VOL. LX: No. 19. REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 1920. ESTABLISHED 1859

GRILLING OF EXECUTORS IN THE PHELPS ESTATE BY SUPERIOR JUDGE BUCK

William F. Chipman and the Union Trust Company of San Francisco, the executors of the last will and testament of Josephine A. Phelps, deceased, came in for a severe grilling on Thursday when the matter of the annual account and petition for distribution was up for hearing.

Mrs. Phelps in her will made provisions for her sisters and brothers, who were old and without means. They were to receive annuties until a trust fund could be provided the income of which was to go to them. There were no funds in the estate to pay the annutants and consequently these old people have suffered. The estate has twice been in the supreme court. When the estate is distributed next week it will go in trust to W. F. Chipman and the Union Trust company, trustees provided in the will.

George C. Ross, representing Mrs. Virginia A. Lord, said:

"I had not expected to say anything in this matter but perhaps I may say just a word in reference to what it seems to me is the situation in this estate. It seems to me that the estate of our dear old friend, Mrs. Phelps, has from the time of her death been afflicted with a malignant cancer in the nature of a will. Your Honor in order to try to save the life of this estate for the benefit of those who Mrs. Phelps desired above all others to receive something performed a surgical operation to remove the cancer and to give the poor old annuitants something. The case went to the supreme court and the supreme court told us that that malignant cancer must have its way. Again if your Honor please there was an effort made through my friends on the other side here to again perform an operation that this malignant cancer should not take everything away from these old people and again your Honor performed the operation and again there was an appeal to the supreme court and again the supreme court said 'Behold what a beautiful cancer this is; behold how it had extended its fingers and its tentacles through the whole body of this estate and these poor people can get nothing—beautiful cancer.'

"As far as my client is concerned, your Honor please, yesterday we thought her very last day had come living upon the charity of her friends and with an estate amply able to give her something to live upon but the cancer must have its way if your Honor please and I for one must say I am in absolute despair as to anything which I can do for the benefit of this poor old dying lady and therefore I have come here if your Honor please, not with any idea of saying a single word or presenting a single paper because whatever your Honor may do, there will be another appeal and in the meantime my client will die and therefore, I say, if your Honor please, it is absolutely useless for me to present anything here with the idea of removing this cancer, in the way of a will, from this estate."

Judge Buck said: "I am glad, gentlemen, that you all agree upon this matter. I might say so far as I am personally concerned that it has been a very interesting case to me because I know the parties, that is particularly, the deceased, and I might say if I could go outside of the record that I knew her wishes and I knew what she wanted because she had talked over this matter with me at my house and her wishes in regard to Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Schroeder—how she wished them cared for. There is no question about it.

"I might say further that one of the executors and one of the trustees, Mr. Chipman, sitting before me now, has written me a letter which I have in my possession in which he states that he knew that Mrs. Phelps desired that these annuitants be paid during their life-time, at once. I have that letter, Mr. Chipman, in my possession now. I will say that Mr. Sharpstein in the month of May, 1919—I have his communication where he says he knows it was the intention of Mrs. Phelps that these annuitants should be paid.

"And, gentlemen, I have tried to carry out what I deemed was wise in this matter and what I knew was Mrs. Phelp's intention and I fully concur in everything that Mr. Ross has said here this morning. He stated what is true; he has put it in terse language and I agree with every word that he has said here this morning.

"Now I decided just in accordance with Mrs. Phelp's will and just as Mr. Chipman knew that she wanted and just as Mr. Sharpstein knew that she wanted, that these annuitants should be paid, especially Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Schroeder, but the supreme court has held differently and we have to bow to the edict of the supreme court. They have the last say in this matter. We are powerless, gentlemen, and in the meantime the client of Mr. Ross lies on her bed in this county starving and hse has no care except what the people give and bring to her and in fact I have had it suggested to me, gentlemen, that she becomes a public charge with a half million dollar estate which the supreme court says and the trustee of this estate say she cannot use and which her sister intended she should have. I know tha is a fact, gentlemen. She is here today and the poor woman cannot be properly cared for, simply because—and I don't wish to charge the trustees and executors with doing anything wrong though I do say this: That if they carried out what they knew was the intent of Mrs. Phelps, this estate was a clean one, it might have been settled and everybody would have got what was coming to them and these poor old people who were entitled to some little pittance would have got it. Now, by a technicality and I venture this assertion, gentlemen, that there is not one person in one hundred thousand in the state of California but will say that I was correct in my decision in the Phelps estate if the matter was put up to them, I know that there is not one person in one hundred thousand in the state of California but what would say that my decision was correct absolutely but I cannot help that. I have not the last say and I have got to submit, gentlemen. The easiest way along is to let these executors go ahead and settle the estate up as they say they can and allow this poor old woman to die down here possibly because she cannot get the nourishment that she ought to have; and her sister ought to roll over in her grave and feel sorry that she has made the circumstances such that she cannot get the money but we cannot help that. We cannot help that.

"And Mrs. Schroeder is deserving too of the funds of this estate and she cannot get it and that is the end of it.

"Now we will distribute this estate to the trustees. The trustees need not sell because they have power to sell whenever they want to and you will appeal to the supreme court and these poor old people here who ought to get something out of this property in their old age will want and want and want but they will never get it, gentlemen. We will do the best we can. We will keep on. Mr. Carson I will deny your petition and Mr. Sharpstein I will proceed with the settlement of your account."

Mr. George Ross further stated: "I want to say a word in favor of these executors: I believe if your Honor please so far as these executors are concerned that they are scientifically correct, that they have not varied a single cent from what was correct. I believe, if your Honor please, that if they had been employed at the time Shylock was to take away his pound of flesh that they would have measured it so skillfully that there would not have been scales up here on Mt. Hamilton that would have discovered a single iota of difference in the flesh that was taken below or beneath or above one single, solitary pound.

"That being the case, if your Honor please, what is the use of our attacking the account; the account is correct."

In closing the Judge said:

"Mr. Sharpstein, you are a man of experience and a brilliant man, and I do not believe that you believe nor can you make anyone believe that Mrs. Phelps gave that palatial home at San Carlos to her sister, Mrs. Lord, to live in, beautifully furnished, with grounds around it which anyone would admire with the upkeep to be paid by these gentlemen, the taxes to be paid and everything she could do under the sun to give her sister a home in which she might live, knowing at the time that she had not a ten cent piece to her name, knowing at the time that she had not a crust of bread in the house upon which she could survive or live and then say that she did not intend that these same gentlemen should pay her one dollar until some future time, that she could stay there in that palace and starve to death but they could not pay her a dollar until a fund is accumulated of two hundred and forty thousand dollars? I know that we have got to say that that is so because the Supreme Court have so held but gentlemen you never can make me believe it."

C. H. WOODHAMS ENLARGES HIS FURNITURE STORE

C. H. Woodhams, the local furniture dealer, owing to increasing business is doubling his floor space and installing a brand new stock of costly furniture. He has leased the adjoining store formerly occupied by the Paris Restaurant. The partitions were torn down yesterday and the two big stores will be thrown into one. Mr. Woodhams is the pioneer furniture dealer of Redwood City who has always enjoyed the confidence and respect of the people of the community by his fair dealing, fair prices and the quality of goods offered his customers. He believes in keeping up with the times and is putting a stock that will be appreciated by his patrons.

A vote for the tax to secure funds to buy the high school site means a modern high school for the boy and girl of tomorrow.

Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States Senator, will make an able, honest and energetic representative of the great State of California. He will be a credit to the august body in which he will hold membership if elected. His prestige, ability and high ideals will undoubtedly serve to quickly establish him as a recognized leader in Washington official circles.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Miss V. Rose of Hutchinson, Kansas and Miss Aileen Smith of Kansas City, Kansas, are here on a visit with Dr. J. H. Dykes and family. Miss Rose is a daughter of Dr. Rose of Kansas who was a partner in the practice of medicine with Dr. Dykes for many years. Both young ladies are looking for locations for their parents who expect to spend the winter in Redwood City or vicinity. They are delighted with this community.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Herrell and their young son, have returned from a motor trip to Lake County and the wilds of Mendocino returning by way of Yoesmite Valley. They were away for a month and enjoyed the trip exceedingly.

Mrs. C. Cullen and family and Mrs. John Morey and children who have been camping at La Honda during the summer, broke camp Tuesday and returned home. They had a delightful time. Mrs. Cullen who has spent her summers at La Honda for many years says that there were more visitors to La Honda this season than ever before in its history. Mrs. Cullen is enthusiastic concerning the movement to make that resort a public park. She is one of the pioneer boosters for the project.

Be sure and vote next Friday for the proposed high school site.

Floyd Weatherly, formerly night-watchman for Redwood City, left recently with his family for Stockton to manage his father's large fruit ranch of six hundred acres. Mrs. Weatherly was formerly Miss Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Moore of this city.

A. L. Bems, a shoemaker employed by M. Milloch, proprietor of the White Shoe Shop on Main stret, was left in charge of the shop on Wednesday while the proprietor went to San Francisco on business. During his absence Bems levanted with cash amounting to $25 and a pair of shoes. The sheriff's office was notified and the officers are hot on the trail of the culprit.

A baby girl was born in San Francisco yeterday to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Meyer, nee Flynn, of Redwood City.

Miss Viola Kanein, daughter of Mrs. E. Hogan and niece of D. M. Flynn of this city, has been appointed a teacher in the school department of San Francisco and began her duties on Monday. Miss Kanein is a graduate of the local high school and the State Normal school of San Jose.

Don't fail to vote for the lecetion providing for a tax to purchase the new high school site on Friday next.

The Womens Auxiliary of the American Legion, Redwood Post, No. 105, is going to hold a food sale, Saturday, August 14, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m., the place to be decided upon later. This promises to be the best ever held in town, every particle a prize article. Everything from soup to nuts on sale. Quality and service the motto, come early, stay late and bring the largest market basket on hand.

P. W. Selby, the capitalist and clubman, has taken apartments at Hotel Sequoia for the remainder of the summer. He is selling his large holdings at Atherton and wants to be near the scene of activity.

CHOICE FRUIT COMING DAILY TO PRATT-LOW COMPANY

A large sum was distributed by the Pratt-Low Preserving company in Redwood City this week to wage earners and others. There are now 250 employes on the pay roll and more men and women are needed. Choice fruit is coming in by the car load every day, principally pears, in fine condition. Everything is running smoothly at the plant and a record season is looked forward to by the owners of the plant. More help is needed but this demand will be supplied as the concern pays good wages and all employes are treated with utmost consideration. The class of goods turned out by the concern is of the very best, commanding the highest prices in the market. The Pratt-Low stamp is enough to sell all goods turned out.

ARTICHOKE GROWERS' BANQUET AT BONZAGNI'S

The artichoke growers of San Mateo county enjoyed a banquet at Bonzagni's Lodge, Wednesday. About 125 were present and participated in one of the best meals served in San Mateo county. There were many courses, the banquet lasting two hours. Louis Farrari, the San Francisco attorney, acted as toastmaster. He made a very clever and witty toastmaster. Speeches were made by Judge Timothy I. Fitzpatrick, Judge McAtee, Mark Noon, secretary of the board of state prison directors, Captain Burke of the San Francisco police department, Fred Vallejo, traffic officer of San Mateo county, D. Sylvester of the San Francisco traffic officers' squad, H. W. Lampkin, under sheriff of San Mateo county, S. A. Landini, constable Daly City, Louis Lambert and many others. All complimented A. Bonzagni on the dinner and the excellent service rendered. A four-piece orchestra furnished catchy music during the banquet.

PORTION OF COBURN ESTATE TO BE PLACED ON MARKET

C. H. Widemann, who recently purchased the Coburn properties at Pescadero, is soon to place a portion of the land on the market for sale. He is perfecting the title to the property. Copies of all the old deeds and agreements that were recorded in Santa Cruz county affecting the Coburn properties before Pescadero and vicinity became a part of this county in the sixties are being recorded in the office of Recorder T. C. Rice.

There are sixteen of these instruments and many of them are dated in 1856. By an act of the legislature of March, 1868, Santa Cruz county ceded to San Mateo county 140 square miles of territory, including Pescadero, Pigeon Point and Butano creek, comprising 90,000 acres.

PUBLIC FAVORS THE PISSIS TRACT FOR HIGH SCHOOL SITE

There is no doubt but that the people of this city favor the proposition to acquire the Pissis property consisting of 40 acres and located west of the State highway for a high school site. It is an ideal location. The people generally approve of the proposition, and it will carry almost unanimously if the voters will only come to the polls on August 13, the election day.

The Chamber of Commerce are behind the project with force and enthusiasm. An influential committee has the matter in hand and is conducting a vigorous campaign.

David Starr Jordan favors the location as indicated by the following letter forwarded to L. P. Behrens, during the week:

Stanford University, Calif., August 2, 1920.—Mr. L. P. Behrens, Redwood City., Calif. Dear Mr. Behrens: I had the opportunity and pleasure to drive out with you this afternoon to view the Pissis tract near Redwood City.

I was very favorably impressed with the fitness of this tract as the location for a high school and junior college building. It is most conveniently situated and it has on it many of the finest trees in this section. A considerable number of them are valuable importations from foreign countries, as the Norway Cypress, the Arbor-Vitae, and the Cedar of Lebanon. So far as I know there is not a high school in the State that has so attractive a location as this would be and I strongly commend it to the favorable attention of our neighbors, the people of the Sequoia Union High School district.

Very truly yours,
DAVID STARR JORDAN.

A number of prominent citizens of Redwood were interviewed yesterday with regard to the proposed purchase of the Pissis property and without a single exception every one called upon was found to be most enthusiastically in favor of the projetc. The following are some of the expressions of those interviewed:

Superior Judge George H. Buck—I am most heartily in favor of the plan. Some time ago I suggested to the trustees the wisdom of purchasing the Pissis tract for high school purposes, when it became evident that a new site would have to be obtained. The opportunity of a lifetime is presented to the voters of the Sequoia high school district to secure this property at such a low figure and I am certain they will take advantage of it.

Rev. J. J. Sullivan, pastor of Mt. Carmel church—I consider the Pissis property an ideal site for the future high school of this district.

Judge Edw. F. Fitzpatrick, attorney at law—We have arrived at the parting of the ways; we must move in order to procure proper facilities and room for our high school. We cannot wait any longer; we must prepare for the future. The forty-acre Pissis tract is ideal, conveniently and centrally located. The price asked for it is very reasonable. The property is well improved and really permits immediate use. By all means let us acquire this property without delay.

Donald W. Williams, 610 Edgewood Road, Wellesley Park—The best investment any community can make is to provide proper educational facilities for its boys and girls. I earnestly advocate the purchase of het Pisis tract for the new high school site as a step in the right direction. Everybody should get out and work hard for the success of the proposition. A record vote on August 13 will show the outside world that this community is alive to its interests.

L. P. Behrens, president of the Board of Trustees of the Sequoia high school——It is not a question of the needs of today but of the future. The school has about out-grown its present quarters, and while it can get along for a year or so, the future must be taken seriously into consideration. It has been the experience of almost every district of our State that where schools have expanded and more land needed, the property has been generally acquired at an extremely high price. For that reason I am heartily in favor of acquiring the Pissis property, while it is possible to be purchased at a figure ,which I feel all must admit is not an excessive one. If this opportunity is lost, I can say without fear of contradiction, we will never be able to acquire a tract as suitablely located and as valuable for a lesses price than the one which we are now offered.

While the property is larger than our needs require, it can only be purchased as a whole. It is, however possible to sell off a portion of the back for city lots, and in that way reduce the cost to the district. A further reduction in the cost will be made by the disposing of the baseball field now owned by the district, and then, with the amount received by the sale of our present school site and buildings to the Redwood City grammar school district, which is also sadly in need of more facilities and which has also expressed approval of the plan to acquire the property, a good start will be made for a building fund.

My position keeps me in touch with and prices and I feel the price asked is not excessive, and a more favorable and accessible location cannnot be found. I believe any one, who will take the pains of inspecting the site next Saturday when it is thrown open to the public, will agree with me. We owe to the children suitable school facilities; it is an investment that always pays, and for, that reason I hereby endorse the purchase. As a substantial taxpayer, I am no more eager to unnecessarily increase taxes than are others; but in this instance I consider it a wise expenditure, and I hope you will joint me on August 13th in voting YES which gives your approval to the trustees, who will take great pleasure in carrying out your wishes.

Jos J. Hahr, superintendent of the Alaska Codfish Company—I am strongly in favor of acquiring the Pissis property at this time for a new high school site. At the price this splendid tract is offered the district, the people would make a serious mistake if they failed to vote to purchase it. Money spent for educational purposes is the best investment and community can make. We must take care of the future needs of our children. They are our best assets.

George A. Merrill, principal of the Lick-Wilmerding School in San Francisco and president of the Redwood Harbor Co.—This property is urgently needed, to meet our present educational requirements. It will serve many other purposes now, in the near future, and for all times. It is a matter of ordinary business prudence for us to acquire it now, while it can be had. Even the civic pride that it will stimulate will be worth a good deal. The benefits will not be limited to Redwood City, or even to the school district in which Redwood City is located, but will ultimately extend to the confines of the county.

M. J. Knox, President of the Chamber of Commerce—I fail to see why anyone should hesitate to vote to buy the Pissis property for a new high school site. It would be a wonderful asset to our county as well as our district.

John P. Weller, cashier of the Redwood Branch Bank of Italy—The Pissis tract will make an ideal site for a new high school Something must be done to relieve the present overcrowded condition of the high school building on Broadway and to take care of the future needs of the district. The acquisition of this splendid property for educational purposes will be a valuable asset to the community. The election should carry by a big majority.

Hull Bros., by Guy P. Hull, secretary-manager — We heartily endorse the purchase of the Pissis tract as a new site for the high school. Everybody knows that something must be done now to take care of the present and future needs of the school. The Pissis property is the only available site in the entire district and the price, $80,000, is very low, Let us by all means acquire the 40 acres and take care of the district's future needs.

Carl Beeger, amnager of the Beeger Tanning Company—The time is opportune for taking over this property for high school purposes. The wisdom of looking ahead in other projects the city has been interested in has proved itself already in several instances and we would make no mistake in acquiring the Pissis tract at this time.

Daniel R. Stafford, merchant—I have a boy. I desire to give him a University education. If I send him away from Redwood City I shall send money out of town that will benefit none here. With a college in Redwood City he can be educated here and the cost will be distributed through taxes over a period of years. That money will build an institution that will be a credit to this community. I am strong for the project.

George C. Ross, attorney at law—"By their fruits ye shall know them." Our girls and boys are the most valuable products of California. There can be no danger of producing Russian bolsheviki in our coutry if our united people show that nothing is too good in aid of those who are preparing to meet the duties of these changed times. I am not a resident and have no vote in the district but as a taxpayer therein, I deem it a privilege to add my mite to a most worthy cause and am enthusiastically in favor of the proposed tax and purchase.

C. M. Doxsee, President Geo. H. Rice Abstract Co.—Forty-acre high school sites are not produced at will when needed. If this site which it is proposed to purchase had been selected fifty years ago, it could not be more suitable and ideal. I can not see how any believer in the education of our boys and girls should be against it.

E. J. Fowler, 750 Edgewood Road, Wellesley Park—I heartily endorse the purchase of the Pissis property for a new high school site and shall do everything I can to help the project carry. This is the chance of a lifetime and should not be overlooked by the voters of the district. Cost is a secondary consideration in a proposition of this kind. Our children come first.

FUNERAL OVER J. J. DORAN AT HOLY CROSS CEMETERY

The funeral services over the late John J. Doran were held Saturday morning from Holy Cross church, with all the rites of the Catholic faith, the church of which Mr. Doran had been a communicant all his life.

As the body was borne from the church, it was between lines of white robed children from the convent, with long flowing white veils. They were accompanied by the Sisters of Charity.

The high requiem mass was celebrated by the parish priest, Rev. P. J. O'Rielley, and the regular church choir sang the Georgian chant for the mass requiem.

The friendship of the deceased extended to all walks of life in the community, and they were present at the service. There were the mourners, numbers of the officials in the community, merchants and profesisonal people who respected him, as well as his former employers and fellow workmen.

The mass was followed by the last rites, and Father O'Reilley paid a beautiful tribute to the deceased.

He referred to him as an honorable and uprigh man, and spoke of the high tribute conferred by the press. He especially touched upon his life as a Christian and as a man of unfaltering faith in God. The loyalty that was Mr. Doran's, in his life as a citizen, was his, the speaker said, to his God and church. He spoke of him not only always present at mass on Sunday, but of the frequency of his presence on week days.

His interest in the work of the Sisters of Charity, with the orphans, was mentioned upon by the priest, who said that he practiced true chairity and was always ready to help in this worthy cause.

He touchingly spoke of the life lived for life and heaven.

A long line of carriages followed the hearse to the Catholic cemetery, where the last prayers were said by Rev. Father Keenan, the assistant priest.

The grave was covered with the floral tributes of love and esteem sent by the many friends. The pallbearers were: C. Younger, W. T. Jeter, Robert Tait, William Horton, J. E. O'Connor and T. J. Mellott.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

Let every voter come to the polls next Friday and cast a ballot for the proposed high school site.

CITY TRUSTEES MET MONDAY

Owing to the fact that the former contractor had canceled his agreement with the city to cut the oak trees in the streets in the Highlands, Trustee Mabie explained that he had requested Mr. Garsea to be present at the meeting for the purpose of making a proposition to the board relative to removing the trees. Mr. Garsea agrees to remove the trees for the wood, and on motion the contract was awarded Mr. Garsea.

Fire Chief M. E. Ryan addressed a communication to the board relative to the condition of the fire hose, which he stated had been tested at a pressure of 200 pounds and about 500 feet was found defective and recommended that the board purchase this amount. The price quoted was $160 a foot. On motion the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for 500 feet of two and a half inch, the bids to be opened August 15, 1920.

Jos. White Co. notified the board that they were wrecking several old buildings at Camp Fremont and they were in position to furnish lumber and electric poles at a low figure.

The P. G. & E. Co. asked permission to set poles on Oak Knoll Drive to supply current to C. H. Holt, also to set poles on Ramona street to supply W. Lindwick. The permits were granted.

J. R. Miller, the architect for the fire house, presented a claim for $750.03, balance due for architectural services. The total amount for his services being $1875.06. The claim was allowed.

A claim was allowed in the sum of $2887 in favor of J. H. Wilson in payment for the construction of a bridge near Beeger's tannery.

The following dance permits were granted:

Sequoia Club, August 31, 3 o'clock.

Redwood Parlor, N. S. G. W., Aug. 7, 3 o'clock.

Alpine Club, H. Lamb, September 4, 3 o'clock.

Hotel de Redwood, August 2, 12 o'clock.

Ordinance No. 211, vacating a portion of Webster street was adopted.

City Engineer Dimmitt presented a map of subdivision, of the Selby estate for the approval of the board.

Map of resubdivision of blocks 1 and 2, in Wellesley Park was presented and approved.

The Shell Oil company asked the board to vacate a portion of Laurel street, near their plant. After some discussion it was decided to vacate a portion of the street, the city to retain a strip ten feet wide for sewer purposes.

The matter of repairing and putting in good condition the drinking fountain in front of the grammar school was discussed and Street Superintendent Dearborn was instructed to repair the same, also to ascentain the cost of installing a drinking trough for horses in Roosevelt Park.

The matter of clearing the title to the Main street fire house was referred to City Attorney Mansfield.

On motion Fire Chief Ryan was authorized to enter into a lease with certain parties, from month to month, for the Main street fire house.

Street Superintendent Ed. Dearborn was granted an increase in salary to $200 a month and was allowed $25 a month for auto expenses, in be effective from August 1.

A permit was granted the county to construct Ivy street for its full length.

The budget was read showing the amount of money to be raised for next year's expenditures. There is to be a deficit of $15,000. From this is to be deducted the sum of $6000 raised from merchants' license amounting to $4000 and $2000 from other sources. The balance is to be secured by a blanket raise of fifteen per cent of the assessed value of the property of the town and a raise of another fifteen per cent on property in Redwood Highlands, Finger Park, Hooper tract and Wellesley Park where assessed value is low.

The complete budget and list of claims will be published next week.

WILL OF JOHN McGOWAN FILED

The will of John McGowan, who died recently at the Base Hospital, near Menlo Park, has been filed for probate in the superior court by Jas. T. O'Keefe, attorney for the petitioner, C. J. Creegan, the executor of the will. The estate consists of accrued compensation due from the United States government and money due on insurance policy, amounting to the sum of $6,000. McGowan was wounded in the battle of the Argonne and was subsequently sent to the Base Hospital. The estate under the will will go to the brother of the deceased, Peter McGowan, of New York.

DO YOUR DUTY FOR THE YOUTH OF THE COMMUNITY

This will be the last issue of the Times-Gazette before the election to provide funds for the new school site. As a final word we urge all voters to come to the polls on next Friday and cast their ballot for this tax.

The success of the election means a new site for the high school. If Redwood City wishes to keep up with the march of progress, she must provide proper school facilities for the youth of the community. This locality is rapidly filling up with home seekers who come here to enjoy the climate, scenery, but if the schools are not up to the standard they will not long remain.

The proposed site is an absolute necessity. Not to secure it at this time would be a crime. Future generations would heap anathemas upon those of the present age who would permit this golden opportunity to pass without purchasing this choice site.

JOHN MacBAIN WILL HAVE NO OPPOSITION AT ELECTION

The numerous friends throughout the county of John MacBain are pleased to learn that he will have no opposition for re-election as supervisor of this township. This is, indeed, a nice compliment to the genial supervisor but it is fully deserved when it is taken into consideration the fine system of roads he has constructed during his term of office. It is generally conceded that the highways of the third township of San Mateo county are the best in the state. Visitors to this section when they motor over these roads invariably pay a high tribute to the supervisor for his efficiency as a road builder. As chairman of the board Mr. MacBain has been fair and just. He richly deserves the high compliment of his constituents in re-electing him without opposition. This means that they are satisfied with his administration.

JOSEPH SCOTT OF L. A. OUT FOR MR. SHORTRIDGE

Joseph Scott of Los Angeles, Republican leader and the man Senator Hiram Johnson picked to aid him in his eastern campaign, has announced himself for Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States Senator.

Scott declares that Shortridge is the only logical candidate for California Republicans to support: He says:

"While we of Southern California would like to see a southern California man in the United States Senate, we want still more than that to see a Republican in the Senate, and we realize that Wallace would be easy for Phelan to beat.

"Shortridge is the only man who can beat Phelan and as soon as that is generally known, the south will get behind Shortridge and put him over. Wallace wouldn't have a chance to beat Phelan.

"Kent apparently hasn't a chance to get the nomination, so we can leave him out of it and that makes Shortridge the only logical candidate for California Republicans of both the north and the south to get behind."

Scott gave his endorsement of Shortridge following a conference in San Francisco with Senator Hiram Johnson. Scott, with other Johnson supporters, joints out that Wallace has nothing in common with the Johnson organization in California. Wallace, it is well-known, worked for Hoover in the recent presidential campaign and he is making his senatorial campaign today on a Hoover-Wilson platform, calling for the adoption of the League of Nations with or without reservations.

The report Scott will take back to Southern California with him following his visit with Senator Johnson in San Francisco is expected to clinch the Johnson leaders of the south to the Shortridge banner.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT SCHAUER FOR CONGRESS

When former United States Senator Frank P. Flint was asked what he thought of Fred H. Schauer as a candidate for congress, he replied: "In my opinion Schauer is the type of man who should be nominated by the Republicans in this district. He is young, able, and an aggressive lawyer; is acquainted with business affairs and has a knowledge of the district. I hope he will be elected."

Antoher man—one who has even a wider circle of friends and acquaintances in Santa Barbara than Senator Flint—Stewart Edward White, the famous author, traveler and big game hunter, organizer of the California Grizzlies and major of that regiment in service in France, replying to the same question said: "I am glad to hear that Fred H. Schauer is standing for the Republican nomination for congress in this district. I worked with Mr. Schauer in the last Roosevelt campaign, and am certain he will make a good man for the office. I hope sincerely that he gets it."

The regard in which a man is held by those who match ability with his is a safe guide to his character.

AN ERROR CORRECTED

The popular illusion spread during the democratic national convention that Governor Cox once defeated Senator Warren G. Harding in Ohio and that Governor Cox is a master campaigner is dispelled with the arrival here of facts and figures of the last four elections in Ohio as compiled by the Ohio Secretary of State's Office.

Raymond Benjamin, Republican state chairman and assistant to the national chairman, sent for Governor Cox's eletcion history after the democratic convention, to learn the truth of the reports which had been circulated by Cox supporters with such telling effect.

Here are some of the facts as gleaned from the report of the Secretary of State of Ohio:

Cox never defeated Harding. In the only election where the two were candidates Harding was returned to the U. S. Senate by a plurality of 102,373 while Cox (then Governor) was defeated by 29,270 votes.

Cox never won a straight-away fight against the Republican ticket in Ohio. He has won by virtue of a large Progressive vote going to a third candidate, as a beneficiary of the "kept us out of war" slogan and polling 82,792 votes less than Woodrow Wilson in this election, and in 1918 by a Republican defection in Hamilton county, including Cincinnati, which is normally 25,000 Republican.

Benjaminn yesterday declared that the facts of Governor Cox's gubernatorial election will be a shock to many democratic leaders who, during the closing hours of the democratic convention, were induced to swing to the support of Cox with the promise that he would defeat Senator Harding in his home state. According to Benjamin, a review of the Ohio vote for the past four elections offers them ilttle promise for a Cox victory in Ohio next November in view of the authentic reports from there that all Republican factions are now solidly behind Harding and Governor Coolidge.

Here are the figures from the Ohio Secretary of State's Office which Benjamin says must dispel the dreams of democrats for a democratic victory in the home state of the two nominees:

1912 Cox (Dem.) 439,323
Brown (Rep.) 272,500
Garford (Prog.) 217,903

(Total Republican vote, Brown plus Garford, 490,403.)

1914 Cox (Dem.) 493,804
Willis (Rep.) 523,074
Garford (Prog.) 60,904

In this same election Harding was re-elected U. S. Senator, carrying the State with a plurality of 102,373 while Cox was defeated. This is the only real test of strength between them recorded.

1916 Cox (Dem.) 568,218
Willis (Rep.) 561,602

In this election Cox ran as a beneficiary of the Wilson "kept-us-out-war" campaign. Cox was elected by a plurality of 6,616 but ran 82,792 votes behind Wilson.

1918 Cox (Dem.) 486,403
Willis (Rep.) 474,459

It was in this election that Hamilton county (Cincinnati,) normally Republican by 25,000 votes, turned to the Cox ticket as a result of a Republican disaffection giving him the necessary votes to elect him. Hamilton again is overwhelmingly Republiacn.

Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States Senator, has for thirty years past aided and assisted the Republican party by his great oratorical ability. He has in every campaign involving party issues stumped the State of California on behalf of his party. The support of every good Republican is a debt of honor payable to Shortridge in votes at the August primary election and again at the November general election.

Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States senator, represents the true Americanism as opposed to internationalism. He stands for the full right and privileges of American citizenship, for the welfare of American business and for the protection of American labor.

Samuel M. Shortridge deserves much of the Republican party and he will make a great senator in the national capital. His candiacy on the Republican ticket, ardently supporting the Republican platform and the Republican national ticket is meeting with widespread and enthusiastic favor in all parts of the State. He should be carried into the high honor by an overphelming majority.

One of the first advocates in this state of the enfranchisement of women was Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States senator. During thirty years of almost constant campaigning in the Republican party, Shortridge has never failed to impress the rank and file, and especially the leadership of his party, with the justice of granting women the full rights of American citizenship.

SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, August 2, 1920, at 10 a. m., there being present Chairman John MacBain, presiding; T. L. Hickey, Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown and Dr. C. V. Thompson. Absent Supervisor Jos. M. Francis.

Judge Edw. F. Fitzpatrick of Redwood City presented a petition signed by T. E. Johnston and fourteen others asking for the abandonment and closing of certain streets, avenues and roads in the tract known as Lobetos Colony, situated on a part of the John Meyn ranch in the Fourth Township. The petition was filed and a resolution adopted, on motion of Thompson, seconded by Hickey, ordering the hearing in the above matter for Tuesday, September 7, 1920, at 10 o'clock.

Judge Fitzpatrick then addressed the board in the matter of the formation of the fire district in the unincorporated town of Colma. He said he was seeking information relative to the proceedings that had been passed by the board in the formation of the district, which he said embraced practically all the territory of the First township with the exception of the incorporated towns, and including all the cemeteries, the Spring Valley Water Company's holdings, the D. O. Mills estate, the Thornton ranch, the property of James L. Flood, Baden Company, Jersey Farm and others. The records of the board as far as he could find, only showed that a petition had been presented to the supervisors in October, 1919, calling for the appointment of fire commissioners, which petition had been received and filed. Mrs. Nash, the clerk, informed the board that no further proceedings had been received, although she understood that an election to vote on the formation of the district had been held.

Following further discussion, it was ordered, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Thompson, that the matter be referred to District Attorney Swart for a written report as to the legality of the proceedings so far in the matter and also as to the board's position regarding the levying of a tax to provide for the necessary apparatus.

Attorney Lee T. Ross of Redwood City presented a map of Subdivision C of the Selby tract at Atherton, in the Third township, and asked that the same be officially referred to the town trustees of Redwood City for their approval, as required by law, where the land is within three miles of the incorporated city limits. A bond in the sum of $1,000 insuring the payment of taxes to later fall due on the property was filed by Attorney Ross with the map. The request of the latter was granted, on motion of Thompson, seconded by Hickey, the map being ordered referred to the city trustees of Redwood City.

The board took up at this time the communication of Miss Anne Bell Bailey, county librarian, heretofore submitted, covering her recommendations for remuneration of employees of the county library, including the first assistant librarian, messenger and the custodians for the various branche libraries. The recommendations were all approved and the salaries allowed, on motion of Mrs. Brown, seconded by Hickey.

County Engineer George A. Kneese presented plans and specifications for the construction of a reinforced concrete box culvert on the old county road near the Belmont Sanitarium in the Second township to replace the present wooden culvert. The plans and specifications were adopted, on motion of Mrs. Brown, seconded by Thompson, and Mrs. Nash, the clerk, was directed to advertise for bids for the work, the bids to be opened Monday, September 7, at 10 a. m.

A communication was received from County Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud in which he notified the board that the average attendance in the Laguna school district, Byrnes' store in the Second township, had been less than five during 1919-1920, and recommended the temporary suspension of the school, in accordance with the requirements of the law.

The recommendation of the school superintendent was accepted, on motion of Mrs. Brown, seconded by Hickey.

Copies of a number of erroneous assessments were presented to the board by the tax collector and the county assessor, and on motion of Hickey, seconded by Thompson, were ordered filed and referred to the county auditor and the State Controller.

A communication was received from the California Automobile Association, enclosing copies of two letters that had been sent the organization, covering complaints of motorists against the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company. One of the letters was from H. K. Knox of San Francisco and recited where his machine had been crowded off the State highway near San Mateo on the evening of July 17, by one of the busses of the Transit company. The other communication was from E. B. Gorman of San Francisco and told of an alleged "cutting in" and a violation of the speed laws by another of the company's busses on the evening of July 13 on the State highway between San Carlos and San Mateo.

On motion of Hickey, seconded by Thompson, it was ordered that copies of the letters be sent to the Rapid Transit Company, with orders that these violations must cease, and also that Mrs. Nash, the clerk, write to the California State Automobile Association, telling them of the board's action and thanking them for their interest in the matter.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Miss Beth Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kelly, a recent graduate of Heald's Business College in San Francisco, has been appointed to a clerical position in the freight department of the Southern Pacific company at Third and Townsend sereets. Miss Kelly made a record for herself as an accountant in Heald's College.

Patrick Kearney, the drayman, has purchased a lot adjoining his home in the Mills tract. The lot has been vacant for some years. Mr. Kearney is to imprive it.

This will be the last day in which to register for the primary election on August 31. Register with one of the local deputies today and thus be in a position to vote for Samuel M. Shortridge, the local candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Miss Mary Emma Flood was hostess this week to a luncheon at "Linden Towers," the Flood home in Menlo Park. Several San Francisco friends motored down for the event.

Miss Isabel Duff of Menlo Park has been chosen to a position in the Polytechnic High School in San Francisco.

The many friends of Miss Mamie O'Dea will be pleased to learn that she has almost recovered from her recent illness. She was discharged from the Railroad hospital on Thursday and is now home convalescing nicely.

The gateman at the railroad crossing on Oak Grove avenue on Wednesday picked up near the tracks at the gatehouse a valuable diamond brooch containing several diamonds. It is valued at $2000. The owner may have the brooch by calling on the gateman.

Work is being pushed on the dormatories at St. Patrick's Seminary so that they may be ready when the students arrive in September. There will be a big enrollment of students this semester, more than ever before.

Owing to the crowded condition of Palo Alto and scarcety of houses it is believed that the students when they return next month will have to secure quarters here. The three hotels here are to be crowded. The enrollment at Stanford this year is going to be very large.

"Mickey," the Siberian hound owned by Joseph White is a luck dog. Last Wednesday he was discovered in one of the large army refrigerators at Camp Fremont where he had been for eleven days without food or water. The animal was unintentionally locked in the big box. Mr. White had offered a reward of $50 for the dog. One of his salesmen in showing the refrigerator to a prospective purchaser discovered "Mickey" in his sad plight. The dog will recover. As a cat has nine lives "Mickey" now struts about believing he has eleven.

The old car moved on the E. Lawler property during the war and used as an eating house was purchased this week by Mr. Holtman who has moved it to one of the cannery sites at Mountain View to be used as a restaurant.

Out under the bright blue sky, amid the trees, where the little birdies sing, the Menlo Park cohorts and Base Hospital boosters made the welkin ring. They also made the scorebell ring, but not too often. The Base put up a good scrap, but the Menloites put up a better. Now you've got the dope. Ever notice how that word "if" intrudes upon one in the discussion of the whys and wrerefores of a ball game? Sure you have If he had combed out a fourbagger in the sixth, with the bases full why—The man who decides the merits or demerits of the team reported:

The sixth game of the league has been played, the Menlo nine tieing the Federals for the first place, Sunnyvale is second and the Native Sons of Palo Alto and the Outlaws tie for the third place. When the Menlo team and the Federals come together for the final game a great contest may be witnessed.

The five weeks daily vacation bible school in the Presbyterian church came to a close on Wednesday with a social gathering of about thirty persons who took part in the school. Mrs. Clohan presided at the piano. Ice cream and cake were served. The school was highly successful. It was non-sectarian. It was in charge of Rev. Harbaugh.

Mrs. J. P. Ahlert and her sister, Mrs. Charles Brady and their families left on Wednesday for San Francisco to permanently reside. Their homes here have been leasd to San Francisco parties. Frank Brady, a recent graduate from Santa Clara University, has secured a good position with a large insurance company and his brother, Charles, will enter high school. Miss Ahlert will enter a convent to complete her high school course. The departure of these families from Menlo Park is a matter of deep regret they have always taken a prominent part in the social life of the village. Mrs. Ahlert and Mrs. Brady have resided in Menlo Park since childhood.

A. B. Partee has launched a campaign to wrest the title of potato king from Shimma, the Japanese who has held it for years. Mr. Partee has secured a 900 acre crop of potatoes in the San Joaquin Delta lands with a prospective yield of 60,000 sacks. As "spuds" are selling at $5 a sack Mr. Partee will reap a fine harvest.

Moses Hogg, a former resident of Menlo Park, was here yesterday bidding his friends farewell. He leaves for England today to be gone for five months. Mr. Hogg is the butler for Editor Fremont Older at his beautiful Saratoga home.

Professor Grant, who has occupied the J. H. O'Keefe cottage for the past year, has gone to Camp Perry, Ohio, to instruct Uncle Sam's men in rifle shooting for two months. He was a litutenant at this Camp during the war. He is an expert in rifle shooting. On his return he will move to Salinas where he will be instructor in manual training at the new high school there. Last semester he taught at Mountain View.

John O'Brien, the Knights of Columbus secretary at the Base Hospital, is at Arrowhead Springs this week arranging for welfare work among the patients. That property was recently purchased by the government for invalid soldiers.

When Joe Larkin sold his restaurant at Palo Alto this week he had removed to his home in Stanford Park the fifteen beer tables bought from Charles Meyer who conducted a saloon here before the law put them out of commission. On these tables are carved former Stanford students who have become famous. Among them are Herbert Hoover, Charles Field the writer and C. Rice and many others. Mr. Larkin prizes these tables and no money could buy them.

PARK HOME SOLD

The beautiful stucco house on Fulton street, formerly owned by Fred Drake, was purchased during the week by Dr. H. H. Winkler, who will reside there about August 1. The sale was made by Robert J. Letts.

—banking that BUILDS

The attitude of the Bank of Italy in all its comprehensive activities throughout California is CONSTRUCTIVE.

Every member of this large banking organization is trained to be keenly on the alert to promote and protect the financial interests of its friends and patrons.

"Banking that builds" is the slogan of this institution and our thousands of clients can testify to the fact that our constructive aid has enabled them to accomplish important achievements.

This constructive spirit of the Bank of Italy has given a great impetus to the manufacturing, commercial, fruit and general farming interests of California—particularly during the past two years.
